My dear Lee

This hurried line will barely be in time to catch the Weekly American post. Particularly as I am on the wing for Bristol — there to meet Frederick Douglass for the third time. The Methodists have Conference some of positions — are rallying in numbers — & he is well prepared to give them enough of it! —

I am sending you letters & parcels by Mrs Johnson who sails for Glasgow on the 20th Inst.

Pray oblige me by sending Dr Dewey a copy of my Famine Sermon, & a parcel of Tracts

You will [illegible]
